Details for Riders, if any, can be found on the Policy Summary.

This Policy is a legal contract between you and Banner Life Insurance Company.

This Policy is issued based on your application and your payment of the first premium. As long as your payments are received, your insurance will continue to be active until the Policy End Date.

Free Look Period: You have the right to examine this Policy for 30 days, beginning with the date the Policy was received by you. Within those 30 days, if you decide you no longer need this Policy, you can provide written notice to the insurance Company. At that time, your insurance will be canceled, and your premium payment will be refunded. After the 30 day examination period, you can cancel your Policy at any time without penalty or return of premium. In the event information, assistance, or resolution of complaints is needed, please contact the agent who issued or delivered your Policy to you, or our Customer Service Department at the address and phone number listed above.

Signed for Banner Life Insurance Company at its Home Office in Frederick, Maryland on the Issue Date.

Renewable and Convertible Individual Term Life Insurance to age 95.

During the Term Period, your premiums are fixed and level (premium amounts will not increase or decrease). The Coverage Amount and premiums during the Term Period are as shown in the Premium Schedule.

After the Term Period, this Policy is renewable on an annual basis until the Policy End Date. The Coverage Amount and premiums during this renewal period are different than the Term Period and are as shown in the Maximum Renewal Premium Schedule. Premiums are payable until the Policy End Date or until the death of the Insured. A one-time Coverage Amount decrease occurs at the end of the Term Period. This Policy is non-participating, and no dividends are payable. This policy is convertible until years prior to the end of the level Term Period.
